

24 Hemlock Crescent Calgary Alberta

$409,900

The Copperwood is one of the premier concrete buildings in SW Calgary, offering the stunning setting and tranquility of living next to a golf course. This easily accessible main-floor unit has a gated and massive 12x24 south-facing patio that overlooks Shaganappi Point Golf Course - perfect for active individuals or dog-walking. This 1,226 sf home features an entry like no other, with a landing pad to function as a boot room without cluttering your living space. The kitchen features all brand-new Samsung appliances and new LED pot lights, highlighting the natural wood cabinetry and modern solid-surface counters. The eat-up bar has room for several seats along with a dining space that can expand to suit your needs. The living room features a corner gas fireplace to keep cozy in the winter and a new ceiling fan to maintain your cool in the summer. The 10-ft ceilings add volume and light to the generous space that looks out through French doors to the concrete patio. The primary bedroom easily accommodates a king bed, with two closets including an ample walk-in closet, and a 4-pc ensuite bath complete with a soaker tub and walk-in shower. The second bedroom makes for a great bedroom/office combo and is connected to an ensuite bath with another soaker tub and walk-in shower. Both bedrooms include new ceiling fans for comfort, the new in-suite laundry machines provide maximum convenience, and this unit comes with one titled parking stall and one assigned storage locker. Brand new paint throughout the unit makes this a turnkey opportunity. The amenities building in the complex features a complete gym and fitness centre, and guest suite. The location can't be beat - extremely quiet and sheltered from noise by trees, beside the Bow River pathway system and one of Calgary's best hiking trails, the Douglas Fir trail, and just a 5-minute walk to the LRT system, or a 2-minute...
