

326 California Place Calgary Alberta

$668,000

This exceptionally renovated, move-in ready, 2045 sq foot home nestled in a quiet cul-de-sac in the California estates area of Monterey Park is waiting for its new family. Your new home has everything you need for your family: a large yard, mature trees, a private covered front porch, friendly neighbours and a close-knit community, along with a separate, fenced dog run for your pup. Natural light flows throughout this freshly painted house, which features a drop-down vaulted ceiling, with large windows from the front to the back with four skylights, including one in the entrance and two in the kitchen, with custom-designed privacy shades in the windows that are blackout & fireproof. In the evening, the home shines with upgraded pot lights throughout the house. The kitchen has gorgeous granite countertops with a large kitchen nook and a bay window. Impeccably maintained wood detailing brings a subtle elegance, complementing the new, extra-thick, vinyl plank flooring and carpet on the main level. In the back living room, a wood-burning fireplace with a gas starter surrounded by built-in shelving units complements the cozy atmosphere of the living space. Upstairs, the primary bedroom has a lighting upgrade, a bay window, a walk-in closet, and an extra-large spa bathroom with jetted tub and stall shower. The upgraded sink fixtures feature temperature-indicating lighting for child safety and ease of use during the night. The secondary bathroom has also had the surround and counters re-finished and includes the fourth skylight, giving you impeccable lighting for getting ready. Downstairs, the almost 1100 sqft undeveloped basement has upgraded nine-foot ceilings and an ultra-functional layout to design your perfect basement. Outside, the extra-large, 40' by 12' double gated patio provides tons of space for entertaining and includes an upgraded aluminum deck railing - spe...
