

1234 Anywhere Street Calgary Alberta

$499,000

This unique and entertaining business offers a one-of-a-kind experience for sports enthusiasts and casual players alike. The facility features state-of-the-art batting cages tailored for a variety of sports, including lacrosse, baseball, tennis, and cricket. It's the perfect spot for individuals, groups, or corporate events seeking an active and engaging alternative to traditional outings, similar to the growing trend of axe-throwing venues. This opportunity also comes with darts, other arcade style games and ample parking. The business is fully operational with established equipment and processes in place. It presents significant growth potential for a motivated owner with time to dedicate to marketing and community outreach. This is an excellent opportunity for someone looking to invest in the sports and recreation industry or expand their portfolio with a fun and dynamic business. (id:6769)
