Discover Southview, where convenience meets charm in a lively community setting! This standout bungalow is directly across from the community center and Almadina Language Charter Academy, making it a prime spot for families. With four other schools within a short walk, it's an unbeatable location for fostering growth and education. Though the home features a tasteful renovation from the 1980s, it includes key modern upgrades, such as a new hot water tank and furnace within the past five years. Sitting on a spacious 50-foot lot with a side entrance, it offers a unique chance for a custom basement renovation--add more living space that perfectly fits your lifestyle. Experience the best of Southview living, where community warmth and personal comfort blend seamlessly. (id:6769)
