

1499 Feedham Avenue Kelowna

$639,900

Team Hamer-Jackson proudly presents...The best priced single family home on the market right now. Incredible stucco, rock and wood trim home with massive RV parking pad and sani dump the complete length of the property on a lot that is bigger than the neighboring lots on the street. This impressive home is so far above spec in every way. The main floor features a beautiful kitchen with antique shaker cabinetry, retro porcelain sink complete with island and glass built-ins. Off the kitchen the open plan flows into a dining space and family room that features a marble floor to ceiling fireplace surround with built-in feature space. There is so much light with the large windows as well as the glass transom above the main door. A large deck overlooks a nice yard space that has privacy due to the mature landscaping between this home and the one below. The laundry room has built-in cabinetry, and the master bedroom is complete with a 5 piece ensuite with his and her sinks, soaker tub, a built-in shoe/clothing storage space and other high-end trims and features. There is a second bedroom up as well. Downstairs is really bright with over 9 ft ceilings, hardwood floors, a huge rec room with pool table and freestanding gas fireplace. There is built-in speakers and a patio that walks out to a flat yard space for the kids. This home is on a flat street for kid fun and is just minutes from shopping, schools, bus route etc. BE QUICK!
