

641 WINNIPEG Street 103 Penticton British Columbia

$580,000

Step inside this almost 2000-square-foot home, where generous living space and a highly convenient location make everyday living easy. With 3 bedrooms, a versatile den, and 4 bathrooms, there is plenty of room for a growing family, working from home, entertaining, or simply enjoying more space to spread out. The smaller, low-maintenance yard means less time spent on upkeep and more time enjoying the home, while convenient alley access adds functionality. Families will appreciate being close to schools and parks, with shopping and the downtown core just minutes away. Offering an abundance of finished living space in a central location, this home is an excellent fit for those looking for comfort, convenience, and versatility. With room for everyone inside and minimal outdoor maintenance, this is a property that truly makes the most of both space and location. (id:6769)
