

10330 Meadow Road Lake Country British Columbia

$945,000

Imagine a home nestled in nature, yet close to schools and amenities. Imagine a super-low mortgage obligation because you have revenue from a legal suite. Now imagine walking to the end of your yard to go camping.... Quality of life and low stress are just a few of the benefits you can enjoy living in this beautiful home, which has been fully & tastefully renovated to maintain its authentic charm. As soon as you pull up to this home, you will know in your soul it's the opposite of subdivision living. This is a slice of heaven. Sit out on your back deck and be fully immersed in nature with over 20 species of birds and a symphony of colour & scents provided by the perennial plants in bloom. Wander to the end of the yard and leave the world behind by following the walkway to your own private creekside escape, on your own property. A place to get away from it all, enjoying the cool water of the creek or a fire at night. The kids have even camped out here! Wander back and step inside your new home to find a well-built, well-laid-out property that has been renovated with love to ensure the authentic feel of the home was maintained while providing all modern conveniences. It's a place you can be proud to call home. Not in a superficial way, but in an authentic way that speaks to your soul.
