

121 Deer Street Vernon British Columbia

$414,900

Very attractive and well cared for 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom home in Parker Cove just a block from the beach. This craftsman style home features soaring ceilings with many windows to bring in lots of natural light. The upper level is where you will find the primary bedroom which has a walk in closet and a 3 piece en-suite. There is also a loft area which looks down over the main floor...a great space if your looking for somewhere to sit and enjoy a good book. The main living area has easy care laminate flooring and a very functional kitchen space. Sliders from the living room area lead you out to a back patio overlooking dedicated parkland...a fabulous area for all to play on when your having a summer family get together. The double attached garage is completely finished and heated and even has a utility sink. Newer heat pump for heating and cooling the main floor. Newer gas fireplace (propane) for those chilly fall mornings. Parker Cove is a beautiful lakefront community on the Westside of Vernon. It is located on first nations leased land and the lease is a registered one that currently goes to 2043. The annual lease is approximately $4441.76 All residents share the use of over 2000 feet of prime Okanagan Lakefront. (id:6769)
