Welcome to this bright and cheerful casita in Painted Village. This sweet little home is tucked away in a great complex, giving you a great neighbourhood feel, with privacy and tranquility. With a modern kitchen, practical storage, in-suite laundry and 4 piece bath, this home has everything you need. Complete with a custom bed with built-in storage underneath and steps from a major bus route, this small but mighty unit is perfect for a student or professional on the go. In a great central location close to shopping and restaurants, and steps away from a main bus route, this turn-key unit with a private patio space is available for quick possession and would make a great rental opportunity. While it may be small, this little unit is the whole package - even the furniture is included! (id:6769)
