

137 Chadwell Place Okanagan Falls British Columbia

$279,000

Some dreams are worth planning for. Set in Heritage Hills above Okanagan Falls, 137 Chadwell Place offers an opportunity to secure your place in the South Okanagan today and thoughtfully plan for tomorrow. This 0.28-acre residential lot enjoys beautiful views across rolling vineyards toward the lake, creating an inspiring setting for a future custom home or Okanagan retreat. For the buyer whose plans are measured in years rather than months, this is a chance to find the setting first and let the dream take shape over time. Imagine one day waking to vineyard and lake views, enjoying leisurely mornings in wine country, afternoons at Skaha Lake, and evenings discovering the wineries, orchards, trails and dining experiences that make the South Okanagan lifestyle so appealing. Heritage Hills offers a peaceful residential setting with convenient access to Okanagan Falls and Penticton, while a neighbourhood park at the end of the cul-de-sac provides a welcoming spot for an evening stroll. Whether you're planning ahead for retirement, envisioning a future Okanagan getaway, or simply know this is where you'd like to be someday, 137 Chadwell Place gives you the opportunity to secure the land now and give your plans the time they deserve. The view is here. The lifestyle is waiting. The rest is yours to imagine. Buyers are responsible for confirming property lines. Building permits are restricted; development and servicing are subject to applicable requirements and approvals. (id:6769)
