

1424 Bankhead Crescent Kelowna British Columbia

$799,900

Welcome to this lovingly cared for 1950's, one and a half story home offering character, key modern updates and exceptional future potential. Situated on an expansive 62 x 147 foot lot, on a quiet no through street adjacent to the desirable Lombardy Square, it is the second owner's pride and joy. Step inside to classic original hardwood floors, and a bright living room centered around an original wood burning fireplace. The spacious dining area features patio doors that open onto a deck overlooking a tranquil backyard in its natural habitat. The kitchen has original painted cabinetry, and two more bedrooms, a full modern bath completes the main floor. Exclusive upper floor forms an open primary suite with a soaker clawfoot tub. The lower level features a separate walkout entrance with suite potential, partially finished, making an easy conversion for a rental mortgage helper. Low maintenance front yard with pathways and wildflowers, patio area, and future city zoning supporting multi-family development. (id:6769)
