

205 DOGWOOD Street Valemount British Columbia

$725,000

There's something to be said about the alluring style of cap-cod houses and this one says it all! This home has exceptional curb appeal with its striking landscaping and elegant facade. Enjoy your morning coffee and afternoon beverage on your wraparound deck as you are greeted with stunning mountain views all around. The private backyard is fully fenced with the old pool house turned into a guest cabin. This property is large enough allowing you to run short term accommodation. Another great feature about this property is the half acre vacant, treed section that borders dogwood street. The option is yours whether to subdivide to recover some of your expenses. This exceptional property really offers you the home sweet home package with all the extras and then some! (id:6769)
