

2063 Carmi Road Penticton British Columbia

$1,499,999

This incredible 10 acre property minutes from Penticton features panoramic views over the entire City of Penticton and from Skaha to Okanagan Lakes. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to build your dream home and finish the current home on the property as a secondary suite. There are several building sites on the property with two separate access points off Carmi Road. There is approximately 5 acres of usable property with a lower pasture area for horses/cattle, four horse stalls and two separate shelters. Lots of property upgrades with excavation, new underground 300 amp service, water and power accessible to the lower half of the property, wood boiler for the radiant floors on both levels of the home, future site for a shop with power, septic, and water, beautiful natural pond for cooling off on those hot days, and a completely private location. There are architectural drawings for the current home available to serious buyers. You really need to walk this property to appreciate everything it has to offer! (id:6769)
