Weyburn Saskatchewan

$78,500

Welcome to Greystone Manor in the quiet community of Weyburn. This is a nicely renovated one-bedroom condo with an open floor plan on the second floor. A large balcony will give some outside relaxing space overlooking a green space area. Newer flooring, baseboards, tub surround and paint finish the space off nicely. The living room has an electric fireplace feature. The extra bonus is a nice sized storage space to keep your extra belongings close to you. Laundry can be taken care of with the common laundry room located on the main floor. One car electrified parking space is exclusive use for you to park. Condo fees include common area maintenance, building insurance, garbage, heat, water, snow removal and reserve fund. In recent years the complex has seen renovations to include siding, windows, and shingles. A huge bonus some of the renos were done was the addition of an elevator/lift system giving handicap accessibility to the building. The complex presents itself very well and is well maintained with a good use of green space. This is an affordable place for you to call home! (id:6769)
