Welcome to 225-989 Range Road in Mountain View Place, a well-maintained 2-bedroom, 1-bathroom home offering an appealing combination of comfortable living, excellent parking, and unique business potential. This property is currently home to an operating licensed day home, creating an exciting opportunity for a buyer interested in continuing a home-based childcare business. Outside, you'll appreciate the large gravelled parking area, providing plenty of room for multiple vehicles and RV parking. The partially fenced yard offers outdoor space with flexibility for families, pets, recreation, or continued day-home use. A standout feature is the detached garage with its own oil heating system and access from both ends of the garage. Whether you're looking for a comfortable home, generous parking and garage space, or a property with the potential to combine home ownership and a business opportunity, 225-989 Range Road deserves a closer look.
