Welcome to 2332 Montreal Street. This 1227 square foot 2 storey home exudes character through and through. Up the walk and through the porch you walk into a beautiful classic open concept design offering original hardwood floors. The living area is super comfortable with a large east facing picture window. The dining space is large and makes a great place for entertaining. The kitchen has been remodeled and shows very well. Features of this new design include quartz counter tops, tile backsplash, granite/composite sink, European style cabinetry, quality lino flooring, a full stainless steel appliance package, modern hood fan and a suspended ceiling with led pot lighting. Off the kitchen is the back porch leading to the sizable pressure treated backyard deck. Up the stairs you have a primary bedroom with considerable size and a secondary bedroom offering almost as much space. The redesigned bathroom is enormous and something you rarely see in a house of this vintage. Up here is also a dedicated laundry room only adding to the absolute convenience of this home. There is a car port out back that will hold 3 vehicles and this yard is fully fenced. Come see what this character home has to offer and don't forget you are just steps away from Wascana Park!
