

239 10TH AVENUE N Creston British Columbia

$675,000

For more information, see Multimedia/Brochure below. Welcome to one of the most historical, unique, and beautiful homes in Creston! Originally built in 1907 for the Imperial Bank of Canada Manager, this gem is known as "The Banker's House." Everything has been updated and refreshed while maintaining its beautiful character and charm. The house showcases original items such as the claw tub, wallpaper, and banister in stairwell making you feel like part of Creston's history! This home offers ample space for entertaining both inside and outside with a large dining room, entertainment area, and plenty of outdoor space to enjoy year-round. The perfect blend of town amenities—including schools, breweries, the hospital, farmers market, recreation centre and restaurants—all within walking distance, while maintaining privacy in your yard - surrounded by lilac trees, cedar hedges, and beautiful perennial flowers in the flower beds. This 4-bedroom, 4-bathroom home also includes a storage room, large coat/shoe closet, and den/office. This is a once-in-a-lifetime home that you must see! Be a part of Creston's history and future.
