

351 Warren Avenue 24 Penticton British Columbia

$699,000

This beautiful one level rancher is located in one of Penticton's most desirable developments, The Bow. Offering three bedrooms and two full bathrooms, this well appointed home offers an open concept living area with a spacious feel and tons of natural light. Upgrades to this home include a solar tube/sun tunnel, a phantom screen door, an updated gas range and "Trim Lights" which is permanent outdoor lighting. You can change the color for any celebration or use them year round as additional outdoor lighting. Outdoor features include an extra large covered deck, a cement patio, a low maintenance yard, and underground irrigation for the perennials. Living at The Bow offers access to the clubhouse that can be booked for private engagements, an active social committee, a great walking path, centrally located to shopping and onsite property management. This development welcomes all agents and allows pets with approval. Check out the virtual tour online and book your private tour today! (id:6769)
