

2410 Trinity Valley Road Enderby British Columbia

$1,399,000

200 acres of private mostly treed, with two residences, first one has vaulted ceilings, and an enclosed sunroom. Heated by a wood stove, this home also includes recent upgrades such as a newer water pump and hot water tank. The second dwelling is a 41' x 69' timber-frame structure, open-concept layout that's ready for your personal touch. Not lived in for a number of years but the structure looks solid, with plumbing, electrical, and layout already in place, could have a number of uses or finishing to your own taste for a home again. The property is treed with cedar, hemlock, and fir, offering both privacy and natural beauty. There is also at least two creeks that run through the property with a bridge in place or Trinity Creek. Access to trails, fishing spots, and the easy 30-minute drive to either Enderby or Lumby. Great spot for private multi-family living setup, lots of timber for selective logging. (id:6769)
