

275 Okanagan Avenue Penticton British Columbia

$1,750,000

Industrial Property with Self-Storage Opportunity | Penticton Asking price: $1,750,000 Located at 275 Okanagan Avenue East, this approximately 10,392 sq. ft., two-storey industrial building sits on a fully fenced, approximately 0.50-acre site in an established Penticton industrial area. The property includes commercial and office space, a self-storage facility and a fenced yard. The second floor is partially improved for office and staff use. The sellers are prepared to enter into a proposed five-year lease with Rencon, with a target return of 6.5% at the asking price. The proposed annual net rent is $113,750, subject to finalizing the lease and confirming the allocation of property expenses. The purchaser may also elect to acquire the self-storage business as part of the purchase, with no separate asking price, or the business may remain with the current owners. The lease and storage-business arrangements will depend on the purchaser's choice and final agreement. The property presents an opportunity for an investor or a buyer interested in an industrial property with a self-storage operation. (id:6769)
