$1,888,000

Welcome to 3259 St. Amand Road! A prime development opportunity in a rapidly growing neighborhood. This 0.59-acre property offers excellent potential for a three-storey townhouse development, surrounded by active residential growth. With four properties across the street already sold for townhouse projects, this area has clearly been identified as a strong development corridor. Backing onto 14 acres of farmland, the site offers a rare blend of future density and a private, serene backdrop, while remaining close to schools, parks, urban amenities, and public transit—making it highly attractive to families and professionals. A current rezoning application for MF2 townhouse zoning is underway, positioning the property for a well-planned project with ample parking, green space, and modern amenities. Ongoing development in the surrounding area further reinforces the long-term growth potential. The adjacent 0.34-acre parcel is also available, creating a combined 0.93-acre (40,510 sq ft) assembly, offering a rare opportunity to maximize density in one of the city's most promising growth areas. Build with confidence and capitalize on a location poised for continued expansion. (id:6769)
