

342 Monmouth Drive Kamloops British Columbia

$529,900

Nestled in the heart of an established Sahali neighborhood, this freehold half-duplex home with a basement suite offers a fantastic opportunity for families and investors alike. The level entry main floor welcomes you with a bright, spacious living and dining area, offering newer hard flooring and a neutral color palette that makes the space feel modern and move in ready. A functional kitchen boasts ample cabinetry and counter space, leading down the hall to two spacious bedrooms and an updated four piece bathroom. Stepping down into the lower level offers a generous storage room for use by the upper floor with access into the shared laundry ensuring ease of use for both occupants. The property's lower level features a desirable one bedroom plus den basement suite with a private entrance, offering a layout that is far brighter and more spacious than your typical secondary suite. Outdoor living is a highlight, featuring a private, courtyard style front yard with new landscaping and drip irrigation for your garden beds. In the rear, you'll find access to the suite and a bonus 19'2 x 7'4 insulated wood-framed workshop, perfect for hobbies or additional storage. With steps to transit, a convenience store and the french-immersion elementary school, this home is one to add to the list. (id:6769)
