

4246 Frederick Road Armstrong British Columbia

$399,900

Have you always pictured a country lifestyle but with a low maintenance acreage that you can manage...then this 1 1/4 acre property may be just what you've been looking for. Already set up with a nice building spot you can build your dream home and enjoy stunning Valley and Mountain views while luxuriating in the peace and quiet of a beautiful rural setting just 10 minutes into Armstrong or Hwy 97B. Property is cleared and fenced with pasture and a sandy riding arena plus a couple of horse shelters & tack room. A septic permit will be required but a gentle paved driveway is already in place and power and water ready to go. These small acreages are a rare commodity so come take a look...you won't be disappointed! Can be bought in conjunction with 4250 Frederick Road (18.78 Acres) for a great extended family estate property. (id:6769)
