If you're looking for a big beautiful older home to renovate then look no further. This 4 bedroom home has room to spare with a full 2 stories of finished living space plus a walk up attic that can be finished for more space. The main floor offers a large kitchen with lots of storage & food prep area that flows nicely into the formal dining room. The living room is a good size that also shares space with the front foyer, giving lots of room for your furniture & guests. Follow the beautiful staircase of the time period to the second floor that includes the four bedrooms, washroom & staircase to the walk up attic. It all sits on a good concrete basement that's been dry. Attached is another area that offers a main floor bath, attached garage with a power door. This house offers a lot of living & storage space. Out front was made for those warm summer evenings with a covered veranda making it usable during rain or for shade. Owner also has a shop & land across the street for sale as well. House is on village sewer plus has a new well. (id:6769)
