$1,049,000

A .33-acre Upper Mission property with lake views, a private backyard, and a completely original 1973 home maintained in exceptional condition. Whether you're searching for a renovation opportunity, a long-term investment, or a home whose timeless character deserves to be preserved, this property offers possibilities that are increasingly difficult to find. Designed to capture natural light and views, the home features vaulted cedar ceilings, expansive windows, generous living spaces, and an ideal family layout with three bedrooms on the upper level, including the primary suite. Original finishes and architectural details have been meticulously maintained, showcasing the warmth, craftsmanship, and design elements that continue to resonate with today's appreciation for authentic retro and mid-century-inspired homes. Functional and inviting as it stands, the home also presents an outstanding canvas for those looking to renovate while honouring its architectural roots. The walk-out lower level provides additional living space, a den, abundant storage, and a substantial workshop and garage area with tremendous flexibility for hobbies, vehicles, projects, or future reimagining. Surrounded by mature landscaping, the backyard offers privacy, room to entertain, and the potential to create an exceptional outdoor retreat, including space for a pool. Located in one of Kelowna's most established and sought-after neighbourhoods, just minutes from schools, parks, wineries, shopping, and the lake, this is an opportunity to secure an exceptional piece of Upper Mission real estate.
