
5181 Robinson Lane Peachland British Columbia

$1,499,000

A rare opportunity to create a spectacular waterfront estate on 1 acre of Okanagan Lake shoreline, offering an impressive 207 feet of waterfrontage, crystal-clear deep water & breathtaking panoramic lake views. Surrounded by mature trees & natural beauty, this exceptional property offers remarkable privacy in a picturesque Peachland setting. The expansive shoreline provides an extraordinary connection to the lake, with beautiful turquoise waters, a natural beach & an existing dock that was previously permitted. Imagine designing a custom waterfront residence with expansive windows framing the lake, generous outdoor living spaces & a setting where the beauty of the Okanagan becomes part of everyday life. Architectural renderings envision a stunning waterfront estate, offering inspiration for the property's future potential. An existing residence is condemned & considered unsalvageable, with the value of this exceptional offering centred on the land, location & opportunity to build something truly remarkable, subject to applicable approvals. Conveniently located near Peachland's charming waterfront community, wineries, recreation & the amenities of the Central Okanagan. This property is one of four individual listings available for purchase together as a rare land assembly, offering an exceptional opportunity to create a significant waterfront estate on Okanagan Lake. (3520 Drought, 3560 Drought, 3498 Drought & 5181 Robinson). (id:6769)
