Welcome to 5532 Mckenna Road located in Harbour Landing with school bus service, easy access to all amenities and parks. This two-story north facing end unit town house is in immaculate condition and feels brand new. You are welcomed with an open concept floor plan, sitting at 1321 square feet on two levels with an undeveloped basement for more space, if needed. From the spacious open plan living room, to the generous bedrooms and large kitchen, the use of space has been carefully considered in this home. The living room and dining room is bright and inviting, very comfortable for most families. Nicely decorated with light colour paint, white trim, window treatment on all windows and light dark colour flooring. This owner enjoyed the kitchen and made it very user friendly with quartz counter tops, centre island, tile back splash, pantry and also upgraded the stainless steel appliances. There is also a guest bathroom and laundry on main floor. The second level has the 02 full bathrooms and 3 good sized bedrooms. The master bedroom has walk in closet which is well designed for most fashionistas and 4 piece master en-suite with standing shower. Off the kitchen is a door leading to the spacious fully landscaped and fenced yard and also offers you a single detached garage pad with alley access. This home is an end unit with South facing back yard Here, Where you will enjoy many summer nights with barbecue. At the back entry there is space for coats, shoes and leashes.
