Don't pass up the opportunity to call this home! This Lattice at Milner Heights townhouse is a perfect example of classic West Coast craftsman design. With stainless steel appliances, quartz countertops, a tiled backsplash, and a roomy island ideal for entertaining, the open-concept design has a chef-inspired kitchen. The cozy living room opens to a sunny deck and has an electric fireplace with a handmade mantel. The master bedroom, located upstairs, has a walk-in closet and an en suite bathroom with a big shower and twin sinks. You can use the lower level flex room for a room or office space, and the garage can accommodate additional storage. Located in a neighbourhood that is ideal for families, this house is close to stores, parks, schools, and public transportation. (id:6769)
