

6053 Turner Avenue Peachland British Columbia

$620,000

Charming Peachland farmhouse offering character, space, and stunning lake and mountain views. Originally one of Peachland's classic farm homes, this bright and airy residence was substantially renovated in 2005 with the addition of a second storey, blending timeless charm with modern functionality. Situated on a spacious 0.30-acre lot lined with beautiful mature maple trees, this home features 2 bedrooms plus a den, 1.5 bathrooms, and a welcoming layout filled with natural light. The property is ideal for first-time buyers, hobbyists, gardeners, or anyone seeking extra outdoor space. The oversized detached single garage/workshop is a standout feature, complete with a wood-burning stove, attached storage shed, and ample room for projects year-round. The property is serviced by 200-amp electrical service and offers plenty of parking, including space for an RV. Garden enthusiasts will appreciate the established fruit trees, including two apple trees and one cherry tree, while the large yard provides endless opportunities to create your dream outdoor oasis. Conveniently located and ready for quick possession, this unique Peachland property offers small-town charm, room to grow, and incredible value in a beautiful setting. (id:6769)
