

610 Mountain Drive Vernon British Columbia

$175,000

Looking for that perfect spot with a tranquil lake view to build your dream home? This lot is the one! With amazing lake views and gradual slope from the lane access to keep the privacy from the road. The drive allows you the time to let the days worries fall away thinking about the views waiting at home and the evening sunset over the lake. When family comes to visit, you are close to the some amazing beaches, close spot to launch the boat for days on the lake, hikes to the falls in Fintry, biking trails, trails to side-by-side and evenings around the firepit. This lot is .57 of an acre, nicely treed, with community water and power at the lot line. There is no time frame to build your home, so don't let this lot pass by worrying about the design. See supplements for additional information. (id:6769)
