Welcome to The Outback, one of the most desirable resorts in the North Okanagan. This centrally located forest cabin is just minutes from both Quarry and South Bay and offers convenient access to everything this spectacular vacation community has to offer. This property features a main cabin and a semi-detached casita, separated by a cozy covered south-west facing deck, perfect for a relaxing sunset. Inside, you'll find hardwood flooring, new carpet and an open-concept layout with striking vaulted ceilings and rustic wood beams. The kitchen has been beautifully updated with new countertops, a stylish backsplash, island bar, along with shaker cabinetry, a wine fridge and updated stainless-steel appliances. Adjacent is a comforting living room with floor-to-ceiling windows. The second-floor primary suite includes a private bathroom, while a second bedroom and bathroom on the main floor are ideal for children or guests. The casita offers a private third bedroom or office, complete with a full ensuite bathroom. Surrounded by natural landscaping and forest views, the large outdoor space is ideal for entertaining. Spacious parking is a breeze being located right outside the home. Never in the rental pool and well-maintained, these cabins coming up are few and far between. A boat slip is available for purchase outside of the sale of the unit. The Outback on Okanagan Lake is more than just a community—it's a lifestyle, with access to tennis courts, pools, hot tubs.
