Welcome to 866 Robinson St. This 1912 built 815 square foot 2 bedroom, 1 bathroom home sits on a 25'x125' lot in Regina's Washington Park neighborhood and would make a great turn key rental property or a way to get into owning a home at a low price! You enter this home into the bright east facing living room with laminate flooring. You continue past the dine-in kitchen with newer cabinets and included fridge and stove to the first bedroom. You pass a den on the other side of the hallway that would make a great pantry and are then lead to the large 4 piece bathroom. The back porch serves as the laundry room and finally there is another bedroom at the back of the home. This home has newer shingles, vinyl siding and is quite low maintenance overall.
