

896 Townsite Road Nanaimo British Columbia

$589,900

Welcome home! This centrally located rancher has tons of potential and charm! It has a detached double garage with lots of room for a workshop for the handy person in your family. You will find many updates in this home, including a large kitchen with an island and loads of cupboard and counter space, making meal prep undoubtably easy and enjoyable. The large bathroom has been updated with custom built-ins to maximize storage space. The adjoining dining room is a great space for your family to gather, or use this space in other ways. The Livingroom area is also large, and currently doubles as homebased office. The yard has ample parking space for cars and even an RV. The property has been landscaped with privacy in mind and has a great little deck off of the Livingroom, where you can enjoy the lovely summer BBQ season with your friends. The central location makes this property desirable with it being close to schools, shopping, dining and just minutes drive to the beautiful Nanaimo waterfront seawall and park areas. It is worth seeing this little gem! (id:6769)
