

919 SCHREINER Street Kamloops British Columbia

$499,999

Built in 1955 and occupied by the same owners since 1954, this residence was originally a church and offer tons of potential. While some upgrades may be desired, the expansive 66'x165' lot provides endless possibilities, whether you envision a carriage house, a pool oasis, or simply a vast canvas for gardening and outdoor play. Front entry leads you directly into the living room with a wood fireplace and also has a dining area, and kitchen, where a door leads to a covered patio perfect for dining or lounging. The main level has 3 bedrooms and a 4-piece bathroom. Descend to the basement, where a spacious rec room awaits, offering ample space for an office or hobby area, alongside laundry facilities and cold storage. Accessible from the basement, the backyard also has fruit trees. With a detached garage/workshop, complete with power supply this still leaves plenty of space for additional parking including room for RV's. (id:6769)
