

251 Harvey Avenue C Kelowna British Columbia

$379,000

Turnkey business opportunity in a prime West Kelowna location. This established retail operation is situated in a busy, high-visibility strip mall with strong surrounding commercial activity, convenient access and ample free customer parking. The business is fully equipped and operational, offering a purchaser the opportunity to step into an established location with the infrastructure, fixtures and equipment already in place. The premises are professionally built out and well suited for continued operation, making this an attractive opportunity for an owner-operator or experienced business buyer. This is a confidential business asset sale. The business name, franchise/brand, exact location and detailed financial and operational information will only be disclosed to qualified prospective purchasers upon execution of a Confidentiality Agreement (NDA). Please do not approach the business, employees or landlord directly. (id:6769)
