If you are looking for a large family home well don't let this one pass you by. Looks are deceiving here in this five bedroom home that features main floor living and a full basement. On the main level there is a porch addition and stairs lead up to an open concept kitchen with centre peninsula, built-in cooktop, oven and plenty of counter space for cooking. A glass door leads into a good sized living room and this floor consists of three bedrooms and the main washroom compete with soaker tub and separate shower. Downstairs we find a cozy family with gas fireplace, office and two more large bedrooms as well as a three piece washroom. Updated windows, siding, roof shingles, nice deck and a (33x12) garage make this a must see.
