

10313 157 Street Edmonton AB

$359,000

Fantastic half-duplex with separate entrance and second kitchen in the basement in a quiet location with schools, park and community league just a short walk so great for those with kids. Inside this home offers you three bedrooms and 1 1/2 bathrooms on the main floor as the master bedroom has half en-suite plus you have your own laundry too. Spacious living room on the main with large window providing an abundance of natural light making it nice and bright and a corner gas fireplace. Kitchen has proper wood cabinets so they are nice and strong and ample cupboard and counter space which you always need. Downstairs you have a separate living space with its own kitchen, dining, living area and laundry plus a full bathroom and two more bedrooms. Outside, both the front and rear provide a small green space so it's easy to manage, as well as an oversized single garage plus enough room on the driveway and side to park more vehicles if you want.
