A chef's kitchen and a gardener's dream in Glenora. This charming and professionally updated 4-bedroom home is move-in ready. This meticulously maintained bungalow is on a 50x150 lot and has an insulated oversized double garage. The professionally designed kitchen boasts quartz counters, custom cabinets and high-end appliances. The upstairs bathroom was also professionally updated. The fully finished basement has two bedrooms with large windows, a spacious bathroom and steam shower, a large laundry room, and ample rec and storage space. Relax on the maintenance-free deck that overlooks mature trees and blueberry bushes. Updates also include shingles, gutters, windows, electrical, hot water tank and furnace. This must-see home in the desirable community of Glenora is steps away from schools, river valley trails, historic 124th street, and shopping and dining.
