CHARACTER~IMPRESSIVE RENOVATIONS~GORGEOUS CURB APPEAL - Considered for years one of Canada's best neighbourhoods, Highlands is known for its tree lined streets and gorgeous character homes. Just one block off the river valley, and one block from the market, this beautiful home is perfectly located. The moment you walk up you can sense this home is special, and you would be correct! From the gorgeous landscaping, to the beautiful back yard with it's covered deck or the massive oversized garage, this home feels like a little slice of heaven. Inside the renovations are as extensive as they are impressive, all with the old world charm in mind. Inside the home is bright and fresh and warm. massive windows flood the home with natural light all day long. The kitchen is modern and open and there's a cozy den that leads to the deck. Note the thick walls? The home has been heavily insulated solving one of the biggest problems with older homes. This is a true gem, a family home in an amazing community. Welcome Home!
