

182020 Range Road 254 Rural Vulcan County Alberta

$750,000

Build your dream settlement surrounded by stunning views and endless peace and quiet. 130 acres of serene countryside offer limitless potential for a perfectly designed new home, extensive farmland, grazing and more. There are several great building sites on the property with a driveway already built. The area is known for artesian water wells and has lots of water. Power is easily accessible and there is natural gas to the lot line. Currently seeded to pasture with 5 acres of newly seeded hay, the balance of the land has previously been farmed and easily could be again. The property is fenced and cross-fenced making it optimal for rotational grazing if desired. Added bonuses of a set of corrals in the SE corner and 40 x 60 footings already in place for a future shop. This unrivalled property saddled by a picturesque landscape is perfect for anyone looking for more space, more privacy and a better work/life balance! The charming hamlet of Brant is home to a Christian School and is ideally located less than 30 minutes to Vulcan, Nanton, High River and Okotoks. Even have your boat in the water at Chain Lakes Provincial Park or Little Bow Provincial Park in under an hour! Truly an idyllic setting for you to make your own without sacrificing any convenience. Don't miss your chance at this amazing opportunity! (id:6769)
