

190 Lakewood Crescent Strathmore Alberta

$539,000

A brand-new home should offer more than beautiful finishes. At 190 Lakewood Crescent, you'll find the space to live comfortably indoors and the freedom to create something special outside. This thoughtfully designed semi-detached home offers over 1,800 sq. ft. above grade, 3 bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms and an exceptionally spacious backyard with room for family activities, gardens and entertaining. The open prairie views from the upper level add another welcome connection to the outdoors.Step through the front door into an impressive open-to-below foyer, where a contemporary circular chandelier draws your eye upward and a wood-railed staircase with black spindles adds warmth and character. Luxury vinyl plank flooring leads into the open-concept main level, where large windows bring in plenty of natural light. The kitchen combines quartz countertops, contrasting cabinetry, stainless steel appliances including a gas stove, a generous island and distinctive geometric pendant lighting for a look that's both practical and memorable. The adjoining dining area flows into the living room, where a floor-to-ceiling black marble-look fireplace feature with striking gold veining and illuminated white built-in shelving creates a bold centrepiece. From the dining area, head out to the elevated deck with a gas hookup, overlooking the backyard. A walk-through pantry leads to the functional mudroom, complete with convenient built-in shelving and storage to keep everyday essentials organized. From here, access the double attached garage, featuring soaring ceilings and both gas and water hookups. A two-piece bathroom completes the main floor.Upstairs, the open-to-below design carries through to a versatile bonus room, ideal for relaxing, working or spending time together. Two additional bedrooms, a four-piece bathroom and upper-level laundry make this layout as functional as it is attrac...
