

2231 33 Street Calgary Alberta

$574,900

Charming half duplex located in the desired community of Killarney/Glengarry and perfect for first time home buyers. Gorgeous perennials greet you as you walk up and into a bright open floor plan. The main floor features large living room anchored by a bright picture window basking the home in the morning light. Flowing off the living room is a spacious dining area and bright kitchen with lots of cupboards and stainless steel appliances, including a gas stove. Down the hallway you'll find a main floor laundry room, full bath, and two generous bedrooms, one with sliding door access to the private rear deck. Lower level is equipped with a separate entrance and leads to a massive den, family room, storage, third bedroom, and full 3pc bathroom with laundry. The lower level is currently a successful AirBnb illegal suite. The West facing rear yard showcases a multi-tiered deck with pergola, green space and single detached garage. Walking distance to Westbrook Mall, C-Train Station, Public Library, schools, parks, restaurants, and just minutes from downtown. (id:6769)
