

1 Large windows at the back of your home give the living room an open and airy feel and are designed to flood the space with natural light.

3 Entertain while you cook with this convenient seating bar. Designed with soft lighting and plenty of space for the eager prep chef.

5 Extra foyer space designed to give you and your guests ample room for removing coats and footwear. There's even space for a bench to add a convenient seating space.

2 The Easton kitchen is designed to follow the Kitchen Work Triangle Rule of cooking efficiency between the fridge, sink and stove. The triangular layout and close proximity of these 3 elements cuts down on prep time and ensures a pleasant cooking experience.

4 A large walk-in pantry designed to store all your culinary needs within easy reach.

6 Your double car garage is designed with space for two vehicles and extra room to store all your toys and tools.
