

3339 Rideau Place Calgary Alberta

$275,000

Step into Devonshire House, your own secluded hilltop retreat nestled in the vibrant heart of sought-after Rideau Park. Originally built in 1955 as a luxury rental, Devonshire House stands as a mid-century architectural gem within the iconic Rideau Towers. Surrounded by sprawling greenery and shaded by towering trees, it offers a peaceful, leafy sanctuary on tranquil streets, all while keeping you steps from Mission's lively cafes and restaurants and the best of city living. This sunlit, fully renovated one-bedroom suite boasts mountain views and a modern, open-concept layout designed for gatherings. Expansive windows bathe the generous living and dining space in warm southern light, while the primary bedroom features both a closet and an IKEA wardrobe for abundant storage. A stylish four-piece bathroom completes the suite. With brand-new Telus Fibre and low condo fees, this makes an especially smart buy in the building. Residents can unwind in the sparkling outdoor pool on sunny summer days, enjoy the convenience of a storage locker and dedicated outdoor parking, and step outside to river pathways that link directly to Calgary's vast biking trails. All just a short walk from Mission's vibrant shops and eateries. Experience character, tranquillity, and seamless city access. Devonshire House remains one of Calgary's most delightful inner-city discoveries. (id:6769)
