

72 Sundown Crescent Cochrane Alberta

$490,000

For more information, please click the "More Information" button. Welcome to 72 Sundown Crescent, a laned house set on a quiet street in Sunset Ridge. The main floor features an open concept kitchen, living area and dining room. At the center of the kitchen, a spacious island with quartz countertops provides ample space for meal prep. The second level offers 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, both with showers. The master bedroom also features a walk-in closet. Both levels are carpet-free and have been upgraded to hardwood floor. The unfinished basement provides a lot of storage space, and also gives you customization opportunities if you later decide to finish it. A full-width porch emphasizes the front of the house. At the back, a deck leads directly into the backyard garden. The backyard is fenced, and leads to a back lane with your own parking lot. The zoning and building code allows for the construction of a garage on the parking lot. Within walking distance, you will find walking trails, a pond, a school, and playgrounds.
