

789 Grocery Meat Avenue Calgary Alberta

$200,000

Exceptional opportunity to acquire a well-established business featuring a halal butcher shop and specialty grocery business in a high-exposure southwest Calgary. This grocery store has built a strong reputation within the community for offering fresh halal meats, custom butcher services, and a selection of international grocery products, serving a loyal and growing customer base. This is an asset sale offering an excellent opportunity for an owner-operator or investor to step into a fully equipped retail operation. The business is situated along busy road with outstanding visibility, ample customer parking, and convenient access from major roads. The surrounding area features a mix of residential neighbourhoods, retail businesses, restaurants, and professional services, generating consistent traffic throughout the week. The sale includes the business assets, equipment, fixtures, and leasehold improvements, providing a turnkey opportunity for a new owner to continue operating as a halal butcher and grocery store. This central location offers excellent accessibility and significant potential for future growth. As this is a business asset sale only, property is not included. All inquiries and showings are by appointment only. Kindly do not approach or disturb staff. Financials and additional details available upon request. (id:6769)
