$532,900

Welcome to 8616 Liberty Drive SE, showcasing the Morrison Homes Lola II model, a beautifully designed semi-detached home in Calgary's growing southeast. Combining a distinctive floor plan with carefully selected upgrades, this home offers contemporary style, practical living spaces and exciting opportunities for the future. From the welcoming exterior to the thoughtfully finished interior, every detail is designed to make everyday living feel comfortable and connected.The main floor features an inviting layout that sets this home apart. A front dining area welcomes family meals and gatherings, while the centrally located kitchen connects naturally to the great room and a versatile rear flex space. Whether you envision a home office, reading room or play area, this additional space offers flexibility as your needs evolve. The kitchen makes a lasting impression with two-tone cabinetry featuring Vanilla Orchid upper cabinets and warm woodgrain lower cabinets and island. Upgraded 3cm countertops, champagne bronze cabinet hardware, three pendant lights and a stylish horizontal tile backsplash bring the design together. The gourmet kitchen package adds a French-door refrigerator with ice and water, taller upper cabinets, chimney-style hood fan with full-height tile backsplash, built-in island microwave and Silgranit sink. A convenient main-floor powder room completes the layout.The home's upgraded black-and-gold finish package adds a sophisticated touch, including matte black faucets, plumbing fixtures and door hardware, coordinated lighting and warm metallic cabinet accents. Modern interior doors, upgraded ceiling texture and carefully chosen finishes create a cohesive feel across the main and upper levels. Upstairs, comfortable private living spaces provide room to unwind, with bathrooms featuring upgraded fixtures and contemporary detailing.The unfinished basement is ...
