Every dream is fulfilled in this stunning modern-day Edgemont castle. Inside, a breathtaking family room is the start of nearly 5500 sq. ft. of living space. Soaring shiplap ceilings and a circular skylight bring the sky inside. Featuring metal clad windows throughout with a value of over $100,000. Curved, panelled walls are an engineering marvel, while stone elements in the hearth of the wood-burning fireplace and the stairway ground the space. Oval window peeks and arches in the feature walls enhance the castle's aesthetic. Curved windows along the front and dining area are a premium design choice that adds to the juxtaposition. The conversation will flow around the gas fireplace in the sunken living area. The powder room is beautifully appointed, and the oversized double attached garage entry contains a laundry room to complete this level. Upstairs, 22-foot shiplap ceilings and open rafters are both cozy and expansive. The primary retreat is a serene oasis with built-in dressers, a sitting area, and a balcony. A dressing room features a vanity with a sink opposite the ample walk-in closet. An epic shower dominates the ensuite, with a bench, a window, rainfall and angled shower-heads, and body jets. The freestanding soaker tub enjoys a secluded corner and a private laundry room here. The second and third bedrooms have walk-in closets and share Jack and Jill access to a phenomenal bathroom with a triple vanity and a separate wash closet holding the toilet, tub, and shower. A curved anteroom is an ideal desk space next to t...
