

Lot 1 Conc 10 Corners Cochrane Remote Area Hallebourg Ontario

$65,000

Some properties are about what is already there, while others are about everything you can imagine creating there. This affordable piece of Northern Ontario could be the perfect place to build your future camp, create a private hunting retreat, or simply have a piece of land to call your own. Just a short drive from town and accessible by road year-round, with the road ending right at the corner of the property, getting here is simple while still giving you that feeling of being away from it all. The property already features established trails, hunting towers and permanent structures, giving you a great starting point to enjoy the land from day one. Located in WMU 24, this is a great area for hunting, while snowmobile enthusiasts will appreciate having another reason to look forward to winter. Whether your plans include building, hunting, riding the trails or spending quiet weekends surrounded by the outdoors, there is plenty of potential here to make it yours. Affordable recreational properties with year-round road access can be hard to find, and this one is worth a closer look. (id:6769)
