501 Robertson Place Courtenay BC

$649,900

In desirable East Courtenay, the perfect family home. Centrally located with a private back yard on a quiet culdesac. The current owners have done many updates over the years which can be appreciated; new gas furnace and new perimeter drains in 2018, and new hot water tank in 2020. It even has room for your RV or boat and a large double garage. The gourmet kitchen has gorgeous granite countertops as well as an open concept to the dining and formal living room. Brazilian hardwood flooring is elegant throughout the main floor, a rarity! The large covered deck provides a private spot for enjoying those long summer evenings. Five bedrooms and with the addition of a downstairs rec room and a family room on the main floor; there's space for everyone to spread out. There's even a roughed in area in the basement for an additional bathroom; create the ultimate guest area. On a quiet street this home offers you easy access to shopping, great schools and recreation facilities.
